

2021-22 Preview

Coming off a season in which the Bears matched a program record for conference road wins (7), Missouri State enters the 2021-22 campaign with all five starters returning, 89 percent of its scoring and 91 percent of its rebounding back from a squad that finished third in the MVC.

Highlighting MoState's long list of returnees are a pair of All-MVC first-teamers in fifth-year senior Gaige Prim and junior Isiah Mosley. The tandem made the Bears the first Valley team since 2015 to boast two first-team performers outside the league champion or runner-up.

With his ability to finish around the bucket, hit the mid-range or extend beyond the arc, Mosley became the first Bear to lead the league in scoring a year ago. He finished with a 19.8 average and also led the league in free throw percentage (.847).

Prim wasn't far behind, finishing third in The Valley in scoring (16.7) and leading the conference in rebounding (9.1). He also earned a spot on the MVC All-Defensive Team and finished 10th nationally in field goal percentage (.599).

Also back for the Bears is standout point guard Demarcus Sharp who seemed to improve the deeper the season progressed. He ultimately averaged 8.2 points per game and dished out a team-high 77 assists while claiming a spot on the coveted MVC All-Newcomer Team.

Missouri State also returns guard Ja'Monta Black who averaged just under 10 points per game (9.6) with a team-high 54 3-pointers to his credit. In fact, his 2.3 treys per game ranked second in a guard-heavy Missouri Valley Conference during Black's sophomore campaign in 2020-21.

The other returning starter for the Bears is swing man Keaton Hervey who got the start in all 24 contests after earning a reputation as one of the league's top on-ball defenders. His offense wasn't bad either, firing at a 49.1 percent clip overall and 43.6 percent rate from beyond the arc while snagging 7.4 points and 4.6 boards a night.

After working through an injury last winter, 7-footer Dawson Carper expects to make a greater impact with MSU this season, along with fellow post Nic Tata who seemed to make the most of his 5.8 minutes per game every time he hit the floor last year. The Bears also bring back a cast of five sophomores – Lu'cye Patterson (14.5 mpg), Elijah Bridgers, Skylar Wicks, Raphe Ayres and Melvyn Ebonkoli – who grew into their roles as true freshmen during the team's 17-7 season last year.

Joining the crew in Springfield are three sensational newcomers to add to the talent-rich roster coach Dana Ford has accumulated. Tops on the list is Valparaiso transfer Donovan Clay who made the MVC All-Freshman Team two years ago and scored in double figures 14 times a year ago while ranking among the league leaders in blocked shots and rebounds. IUPUI graduate transfer Jaylen Minnett comes to MSU after scoring 1,403 career points and setting a Horizon League record for most consecutive games with a 3-pointer (69), which is the fifth-longest in NCAA Division I history. And freshman guard Isaac Haney also adds depth after finishing his prep career with 3,141 points – No. 4 all-time in Missouri prep history – and a pair of state championships.

A new era for Missouri State men's basketball officially began on March 22, 2018 with the introduction of Dana Ford as the program's 18th head coach.

During his third season in Springfield in 2020-21, the Bears matched a school record with seven conference road wins and finished third in the MVC standings, going 17-7 overall and 12-6 in the league. The Bears advanced to the MVC Tournament semifinals for the second straight season and became the first Valley team since 2015 to post two players on the All-MVC first team without being a league champion or runner-up. Isiah Mosley was the Bears first-ever MVC scoring leader (19.9 points per game) and was also the top vote-getter on the Valley's Most-Improved Team, while Gaige Prim also earned All-MVC first-team laurels after finishing 10th nationally in field goal percentage (.599) and earning a spot on the MVC All-Defensive Team. MSU also boasted a player on the MVC All-Newcomer Team in point guard Demarcus Sharp.

In 2019-20, Ford engineered a solid season finish that saw the Bears go 9-9 in the Missouri Valley Conference and upset third-seeded Indiana State in the MVC Tournament quarterfinals. The Bears matched or out-rebounded 24-of-33 opponents, including nine of their last 10, to finish 25th nationally in rebound margin (6.2). The Bears also posted their second-best free throw percentage (.749) of the program's Division I era and had their highest scoring average in league games (71.6) in 10 years. Despite eight losses by four points or less, MSU boasted two All-MVC performers for the second year in a row with second team selection Keandre Cook and third-teamer Gaige Prim, who also was recognized on the MVC All-Newcomer Team.

In his first season at Missouri State in 2018-19, Ford began the year as the fifth-youngest Division I coach in the nation (33) and helped guide the Bears to a third-place finish in the Missouri Valley Conference. In addition to pushing the Bears to their first winning conference record (10-8) since the 2010-11 campaign, two MSU players earned All-MVC honors, including the 2019 MVC Newcomer of the Year, and three players who landed spots on the Valley's All-Newcomer team.

Ford orchestrated one of the best turnarounds in NCAA history when he accepted the Tennessee State job in 2014-15 as the nation's youngest Division I head coach at the time. The Tigers went from a 5-26 record his first season to a 20-11 ledger in 2015-16. He earned Ohio Valley Conference Coach of the Year honors and NABC District 19 Coach of the Year laurels that season.

Over his last three years in Nashville, Ford has led the Tigers to a combined 52-39 record and coached five All-OVC players in addition to two players recognized on the OVC All-Newcomer Team. Under his leadership, Tennessee State also doubled its home attendance average and twice earned votes in the Associated Press Top 25 poll during the 2016-17 season.

A native of Tamms, Ill., Ford is a 2006 graduate of Illinois State University where he was a four-year letterman for the Redbirds under coaches Tom Richardson and Porter Moser from 2002-06. He was a regular starter and led ISU in steals as a senior.

He went on to successful assistant coaching stints at Winthrop and Wichita State under coach Gregg Marshall and later as associate head coach at Illinois State under coach Dan Muller. His coaching resume also includes assistant coaching stops at Chipola (Fla.) College and Tennessee State. He was an assistant for two NCAA Tournament teams at Winthrop (2006-07) and Wichita State (2011-12) as well as a NJCAA national final four run at Chipola College (2008-09). and was responsible for recruiting future NBA talents such as Robert Covington (Rockets) and Fred Van Vleet (Raptors).

Dana and his wife Christina have two daughters, Charlie Rose and latest addition Cline (born in July 2020), and three sons, Carson, Cameron and Crain. They are also the parents of another daughter, Promise, who passed in infancy in 2017.
